

Table 1. The number of children in each age group and the number of children in each age group who were included in the study.

Age group	Number of children	Number of children included in the study
3-4 years	10	10
5-6 years	10	10
7-8 years	10	10
9-10 years	10	10
11-12 years	10	10
13-14 years	10	10
15-16 years	10	10
17-18 years	10	10
Total	80	80

children were given a verbal description of the procedure and then asked to read and sign a written form of consent. The children were then asked to read and sign a written form of assent.

The children were then asked to read and sign a written form of assent. The children were then asked to read and sign a written form of assent. The children were then asked to read and sign a written form of assent.

The children were then asked to read and sign a written form of assent. The children were then asked to read and sign a written form of assent.

The children were then asked to read and sign a written form of assent. The children were then asked to read and sign a written form of assent.

The children were then asked to read and sign a written form of assent. The children were then asked to read and sign a written form of assent.

The children were then asked to read and sign a written form of assent. The children were then asked to read and sign a written form of assent.

The children were then asked to read and sign a written form of assent. The children were then asked to read and sign a written form of assent.

The children were then asked to read and sign a written form of assent. The children were then asked to read and sign a written form of assent.

The children were then asked to read and sign a written form of assent. The children were then asked to read and sign a written form of assent.